

Owner:	Harris County - Houston Sports Authority
Operator:	Clutch City Sports and Entertainment
Tenants:	Houston Rockets (NBA) Houston Aeros (AHL)
Groundbreaking:	July 31, 2001
Naming-Rights Awarded:	July 23, 2003 (Toyota)
First Event:	October 6, 2003 (Fleetwood Mac)
First Rockets Game:	October 30, 2003 (Denver Nuggets)
Highest Grossing Event:	April 7, 2007 (UFC 69: Shootout)
Highest Attendance Event:	February 16, 2008 (George Lopez)
Workforce:	An estimated 2,500 workers worked to build Toyota Center
Square Footage:	750,000 sf
Court Level:	31' 8" below street level
Main Concourse Level:	At street level
Seating:	18,300 for basketball 17,800 for hockey Up to 19,000 for concerts
Club Seats:	2,900
Luxury Suites:	103 total courtside, traditional and party suites.
Parking:	2,500-space Toyota Tundra garage connected to the arena via private skybridge. 10,000 total spaces within a few blocks
High Point of Supertruss:	151' 8" above court
Length of Supertruss:	390' 0"
Cubic Yds of Excavated Soil:	315,000 - the most in Houston's history
Cubic Yds of Concrete:	45,000 yards
Tons of Structural Steel:	3,040 tons
Masonry Blocks:	350,000
Square Feet of Drywall:	650,000 sf
Square Feet of Hardscape:	90,000 sf
Linear Feet of Curb:	2,400 lf
Square Feet of Curtainwall:	45,000 sf
Square Feet of Glass:	20,000 sf
Square Feet of Metal Panels:	60,000 sf
Plumbing Fixtures:	1,200
Tons of Cooling:	3,900 tons
Landscape Planting Beds:	1.1 acres or 49,000 sf.